To make a valid request for free online access

Before completing the form below

1. Your educational institution must be in one of the qualifying countries listed above. Any request originating from outside the countries listed will not be processed.
2. The person completing the form should be the librarian or an official of the institution and must provide their official email address using the institution's domain name. Private email addresses such as yahoo, hotmail, gmail etc are not acceptable.
3. The IP ranges you provide must be verifiable routable IP ranges that are specific to your qualifying institution. Do not provide non routable IP ranges as these are designed to protect confidential environments, i.e. "private" networks. These IP's will not work outside their enclosed environment.

If your claim is valid, it will be processed and online access set up via Atypon Link.

Accessing your subscriptions via Atypon Link

Intellect journals are hosted on the Atypon Link system as pdf files. Once your subscription request has been processed you will receive one or more emails from Atypon Link informing you that access has been set up. See <http://www.atypon-link.com/help?context=main#question18> for more details. Access will be available to anyone using computers within the institutions IP ranges you supplied.
