What film or work of literature are the following quotations taken from?

1. 'Now he was already dangerously disturbed, had been ever since his father died. His mother was a clinging, demanding woman, and for years the two of them lived as if there was no one else in the world.'

1. Answer

2. 'And his eyes have all the seeming of a demon's that is dreaming/ And the lamp-light o'er him streaming throws his shadow on the floor...'

2. Answer

3. 'He will lie to confuse us. But he will also mix lies with the truth to attack us. The attack is psychological and powerful. So don't listen to him. Remember that - do not listen.'

3. Answer

4. 'We must try to get rid of it. We've done everything humanly possible to take care of it and to put up with it, no one can reproach us in the slightest.'

4. Answer

5. 'The man behind the mask is looking for the book with the pages torn out. He is going towards the hiding place.'

5. Answer

6. 'Thy bones are marrowless, thy blood is cold/ Thou hast no speculation in those eyes/ Which thou dost glare with!'

6. Answer

7. 'I'll catch this bird for you, but it ain't gonna be easy. Bad fish.'

7. Answer

8. 'The beast was savage and half-starved. If its appearance did not frighten its victim to death, at least it would paralyze the resistance which might be offered.'

8. Answer

9. 'We'd better get back because it'll be dark soon and they mostly come at night... mostly.'

9. Answer

10. 'There was something about its motion which made Parkins very unwilling to see it at close quarters. It would stop, raise arms, bow itself towards the sand, then run stooping across the beach to the water-edge and back again.'
